

How To Get There From Here

Welcome to Dayton . . . The Gem City!

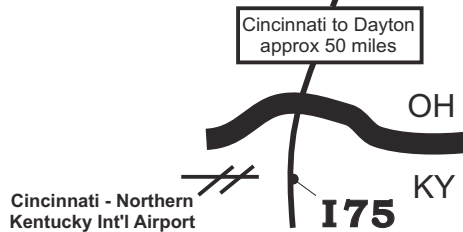

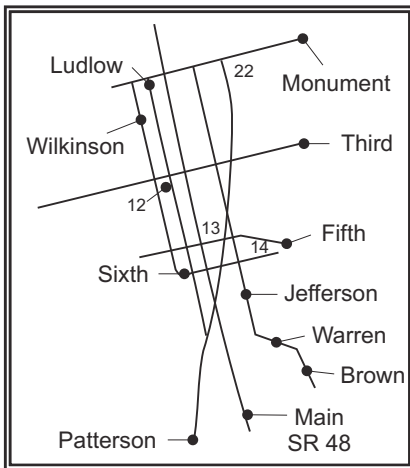

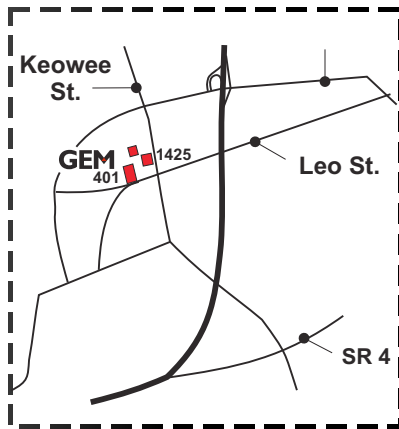

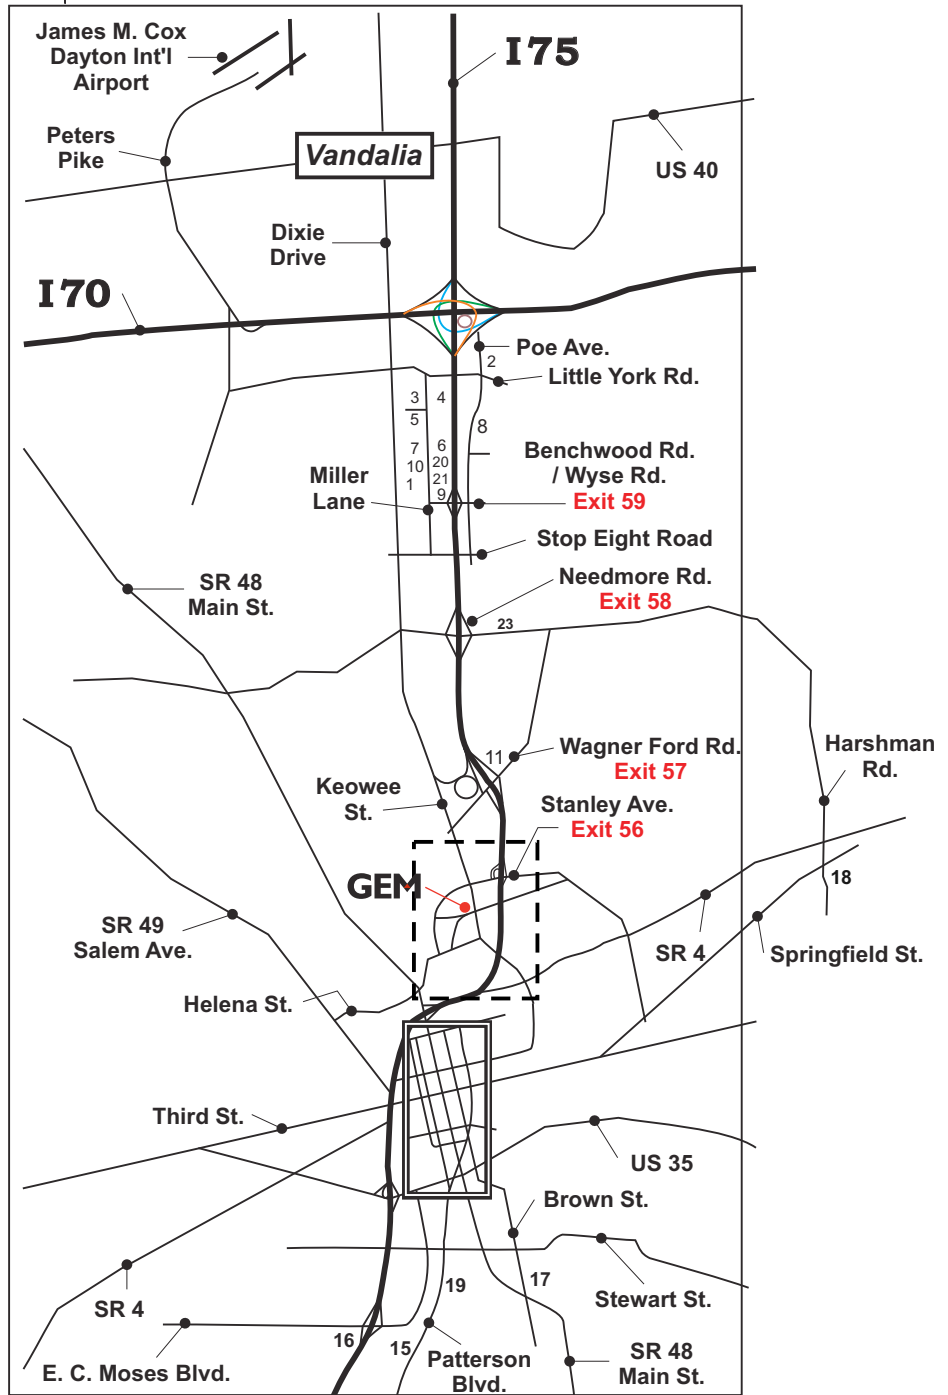

GEMCITY ► engineering and manufacturing

We're pleased that you'll be visiting with us. If you'll only be in Dayton for a day, this map will help you to get to GEMCITY Engineering and Manufacturing.

If your stay will be longer, there's information here on lodging, some great restaurants, and points of local, and world-wide, interest. Carillon Park (15) and the National Museum of the United States Air Force (18) are shown on the right.

There's complete information about the numbered locations on the map on the reverse side of this sheet. If you need additional information, let us know.
